COORDINATOR'S COLUMN –

Well, another month has gone by and we are still here. That's a good thing, I guess, with all that's going on. For everyone, if you get a chance tell Jeremy in the kitchen congratulations as he is about to have his first child- a little boy- somewhere near the end of June. He has been taking a lot of ribbing in the kitchen having to do with settling down and grey hair etc. All in good fun but we all can't wait! It just goes to show how even in bad times life goes on and good things can happen.

As many of you know we are serving a large number of new people due to the COVID virus, well we have been receiving quite a few compliments about our service! Carousel Park's people are very happy with the meals. I am hoping that maybe we can get a few regular clients out of all this. But, even if we don't we as an organization stepped up and did our best for people in this area in need.

Well, I guess summer is finally here so go out and enjoy, but remember to stay safe and socially distant! Enjoy this month's newsletter and see you next month.

By Pam Hill

Letter from Orleans/Niagara Educational Services

We would like to express our thanks and gratitude to you for your participation and ongoing support of the O/N BOCES Learning Program. As a result of you and your staff's contribution of time, energy, and resources, our students were able to appreciate authentic work experiences in a real work setting. Thank you for your continued support. We look forward to working with you in the future.

Debbie Branch, Jobsite Coordinator and Krista Macomber, Transition Coordinator

To cancel your day to serve or drive, call Pam Hill at home on her cell phone 418-5424 the night before so she can get a “sub” for you.

Bottles & Cans for Twin Cities
Community Outreach (TCCO)

Put your empty pop & beer bottles, water bottles, pop & beer cans, in the tan and white drum (behind the chairs) in the delivery volunteers’ waiting area. TCCO has an account with Bottle Junction, 3050 Niagara Falls Blvd. in Wheatfield. TCCO gets the full 5 cents deposit from every bottle.

If you choose to take your “empties” directly to Bottle Junction, just tell them that TCCO should get credit for your returns.

Quarantine thoughts:

1) Tomorrow is the National Home school, Tornado Drill. Lock your kids in the basement until you give the all-clear. You're welcome!

2) I was so bored I called Jake from State Farm just to talk to someone. He asked me what I was wearing.

3) 2019: Stay away from negative people.
2020: Stay away from positive people.

4) The world has turned upside down. Old folks are sneaking out of the house, and their kids are yelling at them to stay indoors!

5) Do you think it's bad now? In 20 years our country will be run by people homeschooled by day drinkers...

6) This virus has done what no woman had been able to do...cancel all sports, shut down all bars, and keep men at home!!!

7) Do not call the police on suspicious people in your neighborhood! Those are your neighbors without makeup and hair extensions!

8) Since we can't eat out, now's the perfect time to eat better, get fit, and stay healthy. We're quarantined! Who are we trying to impress?

We have snacks, we have sweatpants – I say we use them!

9) Day 7 at home and the dog is looking at me like, "See? This is why I chew the furniture!"

10) Does anyone know if we can take showers yet or should we just keep washing our hands???

11) I never thought the comment "I wouldn't touch him/her with a 6-foot pole" would become a national policy, but here we are!

12) Me: Alexa what's the weather this weekend? Alexa: It doesn't matter – you're not going anywhere.

13) Can everyone please just follow the government instructions so we can knock out this coronavirus and be done?!

I feel like a kindergartner who keeps losing more recess time because one or two kids can't follow directions.

14) I swear my fridge just said, "what the hell do you want now?"

15) When this is over...what meeting do I attend first...Weight Watchers or AA?

16) Quarantine has turned us into dogs. We roam the house all day looking for food. We are told "no" if we get too close to strangers.
And we get excited about car rides!

Blonde Male Joke

A friend told the blonde man: "Christmas is on a Friday this year."
The blond man then said, "Let's hope it's not the 13th."

Two blonde men find three grenades, and they decide to take them to a police station.
One asked: "What if one explodes before we get there?"
The other says: "We'll lie and say we only found two."

A woman phoned her blonde neighbor man and said: "Close your curtains the next time you & your wife are having sex. The whole street was watching and laughing at you yesterday."
To which the blonde man replied: "Well the joke's on all of you because I wasn't even at home yesterday."

A blonde man is in the bathroom and his wife shouts: "Did you find the shampoo?"
He answers, "Yes, but I'm not sure what to do... it's for dry hair, and I've just wet mine."

A blonde man goes to the vet with his goldfish.
"I think it's got epilepsy," he tells the vet.
The vet takes a look and says, "It seems calm enough to me."

The blonde man says, "Wait, I haven't taken it out of the bowl yet."

A blonde man spies a letter lying on his doormat. It says on the envelope "DO NOT BEND".
He spends the next 2 hours trying to figure out how to pick it up.

A blonde man shouts frantically into the phone, "My wife is pregnant and her contractions are only two minutes apart!" "Is this her first child?" asks the Doctor. "No!" he shouts, "this is her husband!"

A blonde man was driving home, drunk as a skunk. Suddenly he has to swerve to avoid a tree, then another, then another. A cop car pulls him over, so he tells the cop about all the trees in the road. The cop says, "That's your air freshener swinging about!"

A blonde man's dog goes missing and he is frantic. His wife says "Why don't you put an ad in the paper?" He does, but two weeks later the dog is still missing. "What did you put in the paper?" his wife asks. "Here boy!" he replies.

A blonde man is in jail. Guard looks in his cell and sees him hanging by his feet.
"Just WHAT are you doing?" he asks.
"I'm hanging myself," the blond replies.
"It should be around your neck," says the guard.
"I tried that," he replies, "but then I couldn't breathe."

An Italian tourist asks a blonde man: "Why do Scuba divers always fall backward off their boats?" To which the blonde man replies: "If they fell forward, they'd still be in the boat."

APHORISM: A short, pithy sentence that expresses a wise or clever observation or a general truth.

The nicest thing about the future is that it always starts tomorrow.

The money will buy a fine dog but only kindness will make him wag his tail.

If you don't have a sense of humor you probably don't have any sense at all.

Seat belts are not as confining as wheelchairs.

A good time to keep your mouth shut is when you're in deep water.

How come it takes so little time for a child who is afraid of the dark to become a teenager who wants to stay out all night?

Business conventions are important because they demonstrate how many people a company can operate without.

Why is it that at school reunions you feel younger than everyone else looks?

Stroke a cat and you will have a permanent job.

No one has more driving ambition than the teenage boy who wants to buy a car.

There are no new sins; the old ones just get more publicity.

There are worse things than getting a call for a wrong number at 4 am - for example, it could be the right number.

No one ever says "It's only a game" when their team is winning.

I've reached the age where 'happy hour' is a nap.

Be careful about reading the fine print - there's no way you're going to like it.

The trouble with bucket seats is that not everybody has the same size bucket.

Do you realize that, in about 40 years, we'll have thousands of old ladies running around with tattoos?

Money can't buy happiness but somehow it's more comfortable to cry in a Rolls Royce than in a Micra.

After 60, if you don't wake up aching in every joint, you're probably dead.

Always be yourself because the people that matter doesn't mind and the ones that mind don't matter.

Life isn't tied with a bow but it's still a gift.

And REMEMBER...
"POLITICIANS AND DIAPERS SHOULD BE CHANGED OFTEN AND FOR THE SAME REASON"

And also remember: Wherever you go, there you are!

Two bowling teams, one of all Blondes and one of all brunettes, charter a Double-Decker bus for a weekend trip to Louisiana. The brunette team rode on the bottom of the bus and the Blonde team rode on the top level.

The brunette team down below whooped it up, having a great time when one of them realized she hadn't heard anything from the blondes upstairs. She decided to go up and investigate.

When the brunette reached the top, she found all the Blondes in fear, staring straight ahead at the road, clutching the seats in front of them with white knuckles ...

The brunette asked, 'What the heck's going on up here? We're having a great time downstairs!'

One of the blondes looked up at her, swallowed hard, and whispered...
'YEAH SURE, YOU'VE GOT A DRIVER' !!

Heavens to Murgatroy

Would you believe the email spell checker did not recognize the word, Murgatroy? Lost Words from our childhood: Words gone as fast as the buggy whip! Sad really!

The other day a not so elderly (65) (I say 75) lady said something to her son about driving a Jalopy and he looked at her quizzically and said, "What the heck is a Jalopy?" He never heard of the word jalopy!! or a rattle trap?

She knew she was old but not that old.

Well, I hope you are Hunky Dory after you read this and chuckle.

About a month ago, I illuminated some old expressions that have become obsolete because of the inexorable march of technology. These phrases included "Don't touch that dial," "Carbon copy," "You sound like a broken record" and "Hung out to dry."

Back in the olden days, we had a lot of moxie. We'd put on our best bib and tucker to straighten up and fly right.

Heavens to Betsy!
Gee whillikers!
Jumping Jehoshaphat!
Holy Moley!

We were in like Flynn and living the life of Riley, and even a regular guy couldn't accuse us of being a knucklehead, a nincompoop, or a pill. Not for all the tea in China!

Back in the olden days, life used to swell, but when's the last time anything was swelling?

Swell has gone the way of beehives, pageboys, and the D.A.; of spats, knickers, fedoras, poodle skirts, saddle shoes, and pedal pushers.

Oh, my aching back. Kilroy was here, but he isn't anymore.

We wake up from what surely has been just a short nap, and before we can say, well I'll be a monkey's uncle!

Or, This is a fine kettle of fish! We discover that the words we grew up with, the words that seemed omnipresent, as oxygen, have vanished with scarcely a notice from our tongues and our pens and our keyboards.

Poof, go the words of our youth, the words we've left behind We blink, and they're gone. Where have all those phrases gone?

Long gone: Pshaw, The milkman did it.
Hey! It's your nickel.
Don't forget to pull the chain.
Knee-high to a grasshopper
Well, Fiddlesticks!

Going like sixty.
I'll see you in the funny papers.
Don't take any wooden nickels.

It turns out there are more of these lost words and expressions than Carter has liver pills.
This can be disturbing stuff!

We of a certain age have been blessed to live in changeable times. For a child, each new word is like a shiny toy, a toy that has no age. We at the other end of the chronological arc have the advantage of remembering some words once did not exist and some words once strutted their hour upon the earthly stage and now are heard no more, except in our collective memory. It's one of the greatest advantages of aging.

See ya later, alligator!

I found this time because today I was in a store that sells sunglasses, and only sunglasses. A young lady walked over to me and asked, "What brings you in today?" I looked at her and said, "I'm interested in buying a refrigerator." She didn't quite know how to respond. I was thinking about old age and decided that old age is when you still have something on the ball, but you are just too tired to bounce it. When people see a cat's litter box they always say, "Oh, have you got a cat?" Just once I want to say, "No, it's for company!" Employment application blanks always ask who is to be called in case of an emergency. I think you should write, "An ambulance." The older you get the tougher it is to lose weight because by then your body and your fat have gotten to be really good friends.

The easiest way to find something lost around the house is to buy a replacement.
Have you ever noticed: The Roman Numerals for forty (40) are XL.
The sole purpose of a child's middle name is so he can tell when he's really in trouble.
Did you ever notice that when you put the 2 words "The" and "IRS" together it spells "Theirs?"
Aging: Eventually you will reach a point when you stop lying about your age and start bragging about it.
Some people try to turn back their "odometers." Not me. I want people to know why I look this way. I've traveled a long way and a lot of the roads were not paved.
You know you are getting old when everything either dries up or leaks.
Ah! Being young is beautiful but being old is comfortable.

Lord, keep your arm around my shoulder and your hand over my mouth.

May you always have: Love to share,
Cash to spare, Tires with air,
And friends who care.
